Georgina Gearing-Bell - Senior Manager
Company Secretarial Services UK
Georgina.Gearing-Bell@lawdeb.com; +44 7770 700 025

Georgina is a Chartered Company Secretary with ten years of professional services experience.

She is specialised in providing company secretarial support to investment trusts with expertise in all aspects of board support, corporate and regulatory reporting and governance best-practice in this space.

"LawDeb's Investment Trust Company Secretarial Services have proven invaluable to us since their appointment in February 2022. We now benefit from up to date, detailed and high quality 'business as usual' work. This, coupled with the quality of their specialist advice and sharing their insights as to investment trust industry best practice, is a very powerful combination. We are confident that our corporate governance is enhanced through the practical advice and guidance we receive from the governance experts and company secretaries at Law Debenture giving us time and space to think ahead to future changes and how they may affect our business going forward."
