

Investment Objective Achieving long term capital growth in real terms and steadily increasing income. Our aim is to achieve a higher rate of total return than the FTSE Actuaries All-Share Index Total Return through investing in a diversified portfolio of stocks.

Fund Managers' Comments

In December the net asset value (on a cum income basis with debt at fair value) rose 4.0%, underperforming the FTSE All-Share benchmark which rose 4.5%. Holding debt at par, the net asset value (cum income) rose 5.2%, (the difference between the two performance figures was a result of falling government bond yields, meaning the fair value of debt rose during the month).

During the month the best performing shares included Rolls-Royce and Marks & Spencer, both of which continue to make good progress with their operational turnarounds. AFC Energy also performed well, as they continue to make progress with their (albeit early-stage) hydrogen fuel cell and ammonia cracker technologies. Among the weakest performers was motor retailer Vertu Motors, which lowered earnings expectations as a result of a challenging used car market.

The transactions during the month reflect the Fund Manager's views that currently the best valuation opportunities can be found in domestic businesses. During the month the positions in building materials company Marshalls and developer of build-to-rent and student accommodation Watkin Jones were added to. Both companies have long experience in their respective end markets and while conditions are currently challenging, both have the potential for substantial earnings recovery on an improvement in demand.

Company specific risks

- This trust is suitable to be used as one component in several in a diversified investment portfolio. Circa 21 per cent. of the net asset value (NAV) of trust's portfolio is an investment in an independent professional service company. Investors should consider carefully the proportion of their portfolio invested into this trust.
- Active management techniques that have worked well in normal market conditions could prove ineffective or detrimental at other times.
- The trust could lose money if a counterparty with which it trades becomes unwilling or unable to meet its obligations to the trust.
- Shares can lose value rapidly, and typically involve higher risks than bonds or money market instruments. The value of your investment may fall as a result.
- The return on your investment is directly related to the prevailing market price of the trust's shares, which will trade at a varying discount (or premium) relative to the value of the underlying assets of the trust. As a result losses (or gains) may be higher or lower than those of the trust's assets.
- The trust holds an investment in the IPS business which are wholly owned subsidiaries and private shares.
- If a trust's portfolio is concentrated towards a particular country or geographical region, the investment carries greater risk than a portfolio diversified across more countries.
- The trust may use gearing as part of its investment strategy. If the trust utilises its ability to gear, the profits and losses incurred by the trust can be greater than those of a trust that does not use gearing.
